Caller's sheet

How to play bingo

1. Give every player one card and a pen, or a handful of candy corn or dried beans as markers.
2. The caller cuts out the call slips, mixes them in a bowl or a hat, and reads them out one by one. Tick each word on the caller's sheet as it is read, so you can check a winning card.
3. Players mark the word if it is on their card. The pumpkin in the middle is free.
4. The first player with five in a row (across, down or corner to corner) shouts "BINGO!" and wins the round. For a longer game, play until someone has marked the whole card.

Would You Rather?

Take turns: draw a card, read it out, and everyone picks a side. No sitting on the fence!

Would you rather... spend a night in a haunted house or get lost in a corn maze after dark 	Would you rather... have a pet bat or have a pet black cat
Would you rather... fly on a broomstick or be able to turn invisible 	Would you rather... carve 50 pumpkins or bake 50 pumpkin pies
Would you rather... be chased by a zombie or be chased by a swarm of bats 	Would you rather... wear the same costume every Halloween or never dress up again
Would you rather... hear footsteps in an empty attic or hear whispers in an empty basement 	Would you rather... turn into a werewolf at every full moon or sleep all day like a vampire
Would you rather... go trick-or-treating in a thunderstorm or go trick-or-treating in thick fog 	Would you rather... own a talking pumpkin or own a dancing skeleton
Would you rather... drink a potion that makes you tiny or drink a potion that makes you a giant 	Would you rather... live in a castle full of ghosts or live next door to a grumpy witch
